

Pack 55 Code of Conduct

The purposes of Cub Scouting are to help parents and community organizations serve boys by:

- *Positively influencing character development and encouraging spiritual growth.
- *Helping boys develop habits and attitudes of good citizenship.
- *Encouraging good sportsmanship and pride in growing strong in mind and body
- *Improving understanding within the family.
- *Strengthening their ability to get along with other boys and to respect other people.
- *Fostering a sense of personal achievement by helping boys develop new interests and skills.
- *Showing how to be helpful and do one's best.
- *Providing fun and exciting new things to do.
- *Preparing boys to become Boy Scouts.

You as a parent of a cub scout are responsible for assisting the den and pack leaders in accomplishing the above goals of cub scouting. In order to accomplish that you need to be present at den and pack meetings and actively engage in scouting activities with your scout.

As a cub scout of pack 55, you are responsible for following the code of conduct you helped develop at the first Pack Meeting:

- * When two fingers are up, I will be quiet and listen.
- * I will sit quiet when someone is speaking.
- * I will show respect for the flag.
- * I will be trustworthy.
- * I will be respectful and polite.
- * I will be kind.

I understand as a parent that I will need to assist and remind my cub scout of the need to follow the code of conduct and failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.
